Senator Mansfield has brought to our attention your letter of 28 March to him regarding your interest in Government employment which will afford you an opportunity to continue your study of the Soviet Union.

[redacted] has briefed us on his interview with you and provided a description of your general qualifications for consideration in light of our present openings. We regret to advise you that our staffing situation is substantially as he discussed it with you and it is unlikely that we will have a vacancy in the foreseeable future which would take advantage of your interest in employment with us.

Regarding your request for suggestions about other agencies to which you might apply, may we suggest that you explore the opportunities which might be available to you in the Department of State, United States Information Agency, and the International Cooperation Administration. You may write to these agencies using the address Washington 25, D. C.
